

she seemed tired of iron and that sort of things, and this always does me good.
I asked Pupu if he had any message for you on the political situation. He said he would like to if he had time to think about it but he did not want to send you any message unless he could get the best of your some money. I think he is very well satisfied about the appointment of a committee to settle the matter, and I am sure it will be a great relief to have it off ones mind.
I suppose you will have a pretty heavy bill at the dentists will you not?
We are quite overwhelmed with reading matter now what with Scribner, Atlantic all the papers etc. Be good to yourself darling. Always

Wednesday eve

Dear Billie

Your letter rec, Sorry your household arrangements do not go on smoothly. I do think I am highly favored in the matter of Chimney.
Our gardening operations came to a pause in consequence of the rain. Very willing we were to pause for that knowing that in the end we should gain. We have had a good rain and orders come in thick and fast. Had me as good a stock as last year could do a fine winters business; but Pupu begins to groan over the orders, because he has not all the trees to fill them.

I had a letter from Aunt Jennie today. She says Miss Tichenor is very sick, has paralysis of one side, cannot see out of one side or use the hand or arm on that side. Is in very critical condition. Letters from Joe and Charlie tell about the usual story. C. says school no manner of trouble etc etc.
Guess he gets the blues once in awhile over the fact that he had to work so long to pay up the loss on his farming. I am sure I am sorry for him. Ask Mrs Sill if she would like a Santana, also if the little clematis that Annie took down, lived?
I wonder if she would like some Begonias. I have two or three kinds. You know they do not do well out doors except in the summer. Can you get your letters at Berkeley yet?

If the circulating library is increased, you will have more to do, will you not. By the way I have no particular admiration for Gene Stratton Did not know her very well. Think she was of Yankee birth, but after becoming intimate with the Puges and Bucan's who were St. Louis (Missouri) perhaps she was ashamed of the Yankee, or perhaps the Yankee was not sarcastic. Who knows? Annie seems to me brighter since the rains. Did she tell you that Papa prepares her a dose of his bitters every morning? and that she meekly takes it? Perhaps it will do her good at any rate I felt that she needed some tonic and
